25 JUN 1973

MEMORANDUM FOR: General Counsel

SUBJECT: S. 1935 - A Bill to Prohibit Certain Activities by CIA and to Limit other Activities by such Agency

1. On 22 June 1973, the FBI raised the matter of subject bill (attached) with the ███████████████ In doing so, the STATINTL Bureau commented that the second provision of this proposed legislation has a direct bearing on the normal routine liaison between the CIA and the FBI, for it would require approval of such activity by the CIA oversight committees of Congress.
The Bureau further noted that conceivably, distinct limitations could be placed on the CIA which would have a serious impact on the Bureau's intelligence work.

2. The Bureau is considering discussing the implications of this bill with the Department of Justice but it would first like to discuss the bill informally with the Agency in order to learn the Agency's views and intentions regarding the bill. STATINTL Mr. Frank Schwartz, the Bureau liaison officer to the Agency, has requested a meeting with you or your designee to discuss the bill and if agreeable to you, ███████ of the ████████ TL Group will bring ███████████ to your office at a time convenient to you.
